“ I was so saddened to hear of Sam's passing, but also realize what a tremendous life he has led. He is an example of one of the finest in regard to being a loving husband, a devoted father, and a deeply loved and revered grandfather and great-grandfather. I know he will be sorely missed by his family and also by his friends and associates. Sam conducted the funeral services for my mother at her passing. He was our faithful home teacher for several years, and I know that my children were positively impacted by his lessons and stories. Speaking of the latter, there was no end to the engaging stories he could tell that would draw any and every listener in to a simpler time and in to his heart. He had a tremendous love for people, great personal warmth, and knew how to show those he associated with that he cared. His gifts and talents for making everyone around him feel special will be missed by all that he cared for and cared about. Sam, "God be with you 'til we meet again." Blessings and prayers to all the family.
