“ Sandra was a beautiful flower in the garden of life. I loved going to Belk and having her wait on me because she always knew where everything was and the prices of everything. She loved her job, and her love for people was evident in her customer service skills. I shall miss her enthusiasm, smile, and joy that exuded from her for years. I shall certainly miss her gentle demeanor, for she was always calm and sweet and serene. I pray for her family, for I know they shall miss her dearly. It is never easy to say goodbye, and I pray that their memories of her will be a guiding force in coping with her loss in the coming days and weeks and months. My husband knew her family, and she loved to tell me about her children and siblings. She dearly loved her sweet mother, and I especially pray for her as it is so unnatural to lose a child. May God continue to wrap His loving arms around this wonderful family and grant you peace and comfort in the days ahead.

Sandra was truly a mother who loved and supported her children, who wanted the best for them, and who trusted they would realize her dreams for them. My visits to Belks were always precious when Sandra was there because she always had such sweet things to say to me, and those were extra opportunities for me to tell her how much I love Logan (his unique sense of humor) and Kelsey (her kindness and sincere spirit). My heart is happy Sandra is now resting--peacefully and pain free--but my heart also aches for her children who will miss calling to check on their mom and for Sandra's mother because losing a child, no matter what age, is so difficult. Prayers for all the family have been and will be lifted up. Love, Nancy Cowart

“ Sandra ~ you were always the kindest, sweetest, gentlest person, always putting others' needs ahead of your own, whose strength and endurance surpassed many! You will be greatly missed by all; whose lives you touched in one way or another, through a kind word or a smile, or more deeply, by your love of life! You will always be honored in our hearts and in our minds! God has gained another precious, strong and enduring, mighty "Angel"! Enjoy your new wings, Sweet Sandra! Peace be with You!

My thoughts and prayers are with all those you love so dearly!
Love you always,
Vicky Olson

Vicky, you have captured my feelings and I'm sure those of many others so well with your words. I have read all of the memories of Sandra here; and kind, sweet, giving all seem to be common themes throughout. Our family has lost someone very special and unique who can't be replaced, just fondly remembered. Let's all honor Sandra's memory by living our lives with the kindest and warmth toward others that she was so good at showing.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Sandra and her family. So many memories come flooding back. Sandra piercing my ears with a needle and ice cubes. Running in and out of my house , her house, and poor Murray, driving us every where in that blue Road Runner. And the sadness of losing touch over the years and the promises of lunch and keeping in touch when running into each other over. One thing was consistent every time I saw Sandrs over the past 20 years, she loved her children more than life itself and she was a devoted mom. I have no doubt that she will continue that roll and she will always watch over her kids and they will always feel her love.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Sandra's family. Sandra was a special lady. I worked with her at Belk in the Regency Mall. Sandra always had a smile and was a pleasure to talk with. She loved her family, especially her children. Sandra will always be with you in memory. May you find peace and comfort in the Lord, family, and friends during the days ahead.

“ All of my life every time I was with or spoke on the phone with Sandra (within the first few minutes of our conversation) she looked or said to me with deep feeling how much she truly loved me, without fail. A lifetime of love. Rest in peace and free of all worry and worldly concerns dear Aunt Sandra. Until we see each other again, I know your love will always shine through your beautiful Kelsey and Logan. I love you.
