“ *To the family of Gwyn ,
Our deepest sympathy to you all. Gwyn was our neighbor over on Sanders Road 3 years ago. She was the sweetest person you could ever meet. She was so full of life and always had a smile on her face. She was a great friend to us as well as to our dog, Zaxby. We will certainly miss Gwyn very much. I hope someone will take good care of her beloved dog: Auggie. Regina, your mother was so proud of you and talked of you often. We loved Gwyn and our hearts are very heavy with her loss. Should any of you need anything please let us know. You are all in our thoughts and prayers.*

“ I had the pleasure of knowing Gwyn even if it was for a short time. I also will not ever forget her smiling face and I am going to greatly miss her. She always greeted me every morning with a "Hey There, Good Morning" and a smile. She was always so giving of herself and I don't think there isn't anything she wouldn't of done for someone else. Gwyn was truly a good person and I know that God just didn't want to share her with us anymore and he needed her in heaven with him. My prayers are with her family. God Bless you Gwyn.
