You were one of a kind, always smiling and laughing. This has been a shock. I have lots of memories to cherish from us working together @ ECSO to the memories when we were off the clock. We had lots of laughs and good times. I can laugh and smile thinking of them. If you ever needed him he was a phone call away and would do anything for anyone. My condolence to all his Family, Time for resting fly high keep an eye out on all of us...

“ *Marvis,
My heart is breaking for you and Britt and all the family. I remember vividly those days when our boys were small and growing up together. Wonderful memories of happy times. May the peace that only God gives sustain you and lift you up during this difficult time. Deepest sympathies and love to you.*

“ *This sweet face...
I remember when Scott was six years old. He and my Britt were in the Little Mr. North Augusta Pageant together. They were so very precious on stage!*

Marvis, my heart aches for you. Losing a child is the most difficult of trials to live through. Knowing your Scott is with Jesus is comforting, but missing the conversations and physical presence is so very, very hard. I am praying for you and the family.
