“ Kristie, I feel blessed to have gotten to know Sean through my husband John (Trace) Shuler III. Sean was a very kind person and a close friend of John's. I felt honored that he was part of our wedding 20 years ago and part of our lives. I know that the two dear friends are together again. Please know that you and your children are in my many thoughts and prayers.

*Sincerely,
Heather*

“ The last conversation I had with Sean was sitting in work release at work. We talked about tank less water heaters. He love figuring things out. That was the engineer in him. Sean was a great guy and always made people feel important and valued. Those that knew him were better for it. He will be greatly missed and heaven received a new angel.

I met Sean years ago very briefly but I feel I knew him well thru his brother, Bruce. Bruce has always spoken of his brother and his family with great love and respect. Sean will be dearly missed by many. My family and I send our prayers to the family that you will find comfort knowing Sean is in a very peaceful place with no tears and no pain. May God comfort you.

“ I remember when I was going thru my cancer surgery and chemo Sean would always come by and check on me. On one very special day he brought over his Yellow Corvette Indy Pace Car he was so proud of that car. Sean was a very good friend as well as a another one of us fighting cancer as best as you can. He is not suffering now and will be missed - God bless Sean 's Family and friends. Stevan Arthur and Family

“ I remember when Sean was helping you move into the house on Newberry St. Nobody likes hauling furniture, but he was there for you and I just remember that he had such a positive attitude, even when the rest of us were so done with it!! You always talked about Sean with such pride, I know how much you loved him and although I didn't know Sean that well, I knew that he loved you just as much by his actions and attitude towards you. Sending so much love to you and your family xxx

Joyce, please know that David & I are praying for you, Kristi & all of the family. Marilyn text me to let me know that Sean had gone home, I called all of our "Ladies Conference friends" & they began to pray, I know our church family is continuing to pray also. Our hearts are breaking for you & the family, but we know that Sean is no longer in pain, he is at the feet of Jesus hearing welcome home my son. I love you & wish I could be there with you, but I know your family will hold you close, & your saviour will be there, because he is closer than a brother. We love you & we are praying for you all. Love Trish.
