“ Anyone that knew Sharon was either part of the family or her friend. Favorite memory would have to be Christmas time. Always had a big tree all decked out. She loved her children and grandchildren too. She will be sorely missed.

I met Sharon at shoneys in 87. Loved working with her. Could always make me laugh. Became great friends with a mutual love of anything Elvis! She and Terry were there for me during a very hard time. Can't say enough bout her. Those whose lives were touched by her were the better for it. Rest in peace, friend!

“Sorry for your loss, I did not know Sharon personally, but she waited out table many times at Ryan's and later BJ's, and was always kind, thoughtful and extremely interested in keeping her customers happy, she will be missed. May you find many blessings in your wonderful memories of your family member.
