“ Tom,

I was very shocked to hear the passing of Sharon. I honestly don't know what to say as I sit here,,,,,, tears are rolling down my face. She was one of the kindest ladies I've ever met.

*Love ya my friend.

“ Such a loss for all who loved here on earth but what a special joy for heaven. She was the kindest, most loving person in spite of all her physical problems. Always had a smile and a hug for me. She lifted me up many times. Praying for Tom and all the family. We can't be too sad because she is walking pain free on the streets of gold today!

“ Tom and family, Sharon was a wonderful person in every way but what I admired most was her strong faith...Lord knows she had too many trials to even recall however she remained strong and brave and knew the Lord knew best. I also know the Lord knows best and decided Sharon had enough and spared her any more pain and suffering. She loved all of u dearly but u know that. Hard to believe just 10 months ago she was here at our sides giving all she had to lay my brother to rest and now they will be laughing together in heaven. God bless all of u bc she was a rare and priceless gem and will be missed in so many ways. James and Bonnie Wood Short

“ Terry and I are so saddened that Sharon will no longer be in our lives. She was one of the sweetest, kindest, and most loving persons we have ever known. Even though her health was failing, she was always there with a meal or a phone call to wish us well. She was an inspiration to everyone around her and she was dearly loved at Sweetwater church! I will always cherish the memories I have of antique shopping and eating out with Sharon. Our hearts are heavy, but we know that she is whole again...can't wait to see her in Heaven! May God give her family peace and comfort.

We met Sharon and Tom through our three sons, playing sandlot football together. As they went through school, we have many fond memories of the good times in the concession stand. Sharon was a sweetheart and will be missed by many.

Tom and family, we are so saddened for your loss of Sharon. We loved her the moment we met at Sweetwater. She was such an inspiration to us in that no matter how bad she felt she was reaching out to everyone with love and support. She had such strong faith and love of the Lord, and it showed in her smile. Our hearts and prayers go out to you for the Lord to wrap His arms of comfort around you all. We love you. I have not known Sharon that long, but to know her was to love her.,she was such a sweet lady, and one to be admired for her strength despite her hardship. I have a very special memory of her coming to my house to play cards not very long ago. She will be sorely missed. Condolences to Tom, and her entire family. Julie Curl & Bill
