“ Carol was gracious lady who loved the Lord. I'll remember her from her teaching my children at Sunday School to being in a Sunday School class with her at Fairview. Her belief and faith in Jesus was evident in her life. I will miss her bright smile!

She wasn't just my best friend's mom — she became my second mom. She welcomed me into her home and her heart, loving me like her own daughter. She made me feel safe, seen, and deeply loved. All my memories with her will never leave me. She nurtured me, believed in me, and showed me the love of Jesus in the way she lived. I will forever be grateful for the way she shaped my heart and my faith, and I will carry her love with me always. I love you so much. Ally
