I liked Sheri the very first time I met her. I didn't know her very long . I really enjoyed the times that I hung out with Sheri and Linda. She will be missed by all. Heaven has received an absolute treasure in Sheri and her beautiful smile. I will miss her. Dianne Rickerson

*Losing you my friend,
It hurts so very bad,
But I can hear you saying,
Please ya'll don't be sad.*

*You were a Mother, oh so dear,
And an honest, loving wife,
We all became so blessed
When God put you in our life.*

*And Sheri was that person,
That Mother, Wife & Friend
We all knew we could count on,
Until the very end.*

“ I have to say that when I first met Aunt Sheri, Uncle Eddie brought her home for the weekend to meet everyone. She started off on the wrong foot with Pam and I because she look our paychecks for the week! Uncle Eddie gave us all the change we found in his suitcase and truck if we did his laundry and cleaned his truck. We hit the mother load every weekend, UNTIL she made him start putting it in a jar. Then she brought Travis and Ginger home Travis had the longest eye lashes I have ever seen. Aunt Sheri had such a contagious personality and always dressed for success. Her and Uncle Eddie always made you feel comfortable in their home and would do anything for you. I am going to miss her, her smile, her laugh, her sassiness, us getting in trouble at family functions my mom telling us behave but most of all her big heart.

*I love and will miss you!
