“ Aunt Shirley, I have many many fond memories growing up with you in them...all the times I traveled with my parents to SC to visit Pete and you guys while we were there. I'm so sorry I couldn't be there today, you will forever be with me and with everyone who loved :) Now, you will be able to be with your parents, your sisters and brothers and with Jackie, who I know you have missed dearly. P.S. I hope Aunt Ginny isn't giving you to hard of a time!! ;) We all love you!!!!

“ Mom, Jan and I picked out a beautiful dress for you to wear tomorrow. Its pink.... and you always looked beautiful in pink! I miss you so much Mom but I didnt want you to stay here on earth in pain. Your life the past 18 months has been nothing but doctor, needles, tests and getting blood and platelets. At the end you were so tired but yet you still fought to stay here with us but it was time to let go and go to Heaven and be with your sisters and Jackie! A part of you will be in a form of a rose at the wedding and it makes it alittle easier knowing you are there with us. I will see you again one day...but until then "I Love You Mom " with all my heart!!!!

"I like to believe that when we lose someone close to us they still live through us and give us strength. The time we have spent with those we've lost makes them part of us."
My sympathies for the loss of your mother. You will be in my prayers.
Love Always,
Susan and Kevin

*JoAnn, I know how it feels to lose your mom. She seemed like a truly sweet, and loving woman. She will always be there with you, like my mom has been. You will hear in her in your thoughts and her words will guide you. That is the special thing about a mother- a bond that is so strong, that even death cannot separate. She did a wonderful job as a mother, because you turned out to be such a loving and giving Mother. I love you,
