“ Rest well Aunt Shirley! You were one person who steered me and guided me through my trouble youth. You always had time to drink coffee with me and talk. You are now with Uncle VJ and probably laughing with my Mom. You will always be fondly remembered and missed. Jeffrey Oliver Mystic Ct

“ Growing up in Mystic, CT, Shirley and V.J. were close neighbors and friends of my family, the Rogers. Shirley was "Aunt Shirley" to the children and a close friend of my mother, Rose Rogers and my dad, Otis. She was there for birthday parties, showers, holidays, weddings, funerals often bringing food and serving and cleaning up. She was definitely a "kitchen person" and loved helping out. She and my sister, Ellen Oliver, were extremely close. Ellen visited her in SC when she was still able to travel. All of us loved Shirley. I last talked to her during 2019 and we shared memories.
