“ *Mrs Moyer was an exceptional woman. She was like a second mother to me for many years when Tracy and I were inseparable. Many camping trips , skiing, softball games, sleep overs. Such great memories . She was a tough cookie didn't put up with any nonsense from anyone. Lol . Will always have our memories of her to keep with us. My prayers to all and hugs. “ I have such wonderful memories of my all time favorite aunt. Our trip to the Bahamas where she talked me into going parasailing; our road trips to Wrightsville to visit her cousins; and on and on. She was my precious Daddy's favorite, and only, sister and he simply adored her. He would shine shoes on Broad Street and sell newspapers to pay for them to go to the movies and share a bag of popcorn. She always knew that her brother was just a phone call away. She will be greatly missed and fondly remembered. However we take comfort knowing that her suffering here on earth has ended and we will see her again.

Dean and Tracy, our hearts are heavy for you both. Please know that we are just a phone call away. Hugs and prayers to you both during this difficult time.

Love always, Kim and Billy
