“ It's hard for me to imagine our Thursdays without seeing Steve working in our yard. I don't think I will ever again walk through my garden without remembering him. He was such a dedicated worker going above and beyond. Just last week after he spent hours out there in the heat, I told him he needs to go home! His reply— “gotta give 100%” Most importantly, Steve was our friend. Often we would talk about the things of life—how proud he was of Christina then he'd share the latest news about his church family. Our lives were richer in knowing him....he will be missed.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. He was always so nice to me when he came into Gary's. We had a thing going where he would bring me two one dollar bills and I would give him two dollars in quarters. He always had a smile.

“ For Stephen's family and Margaret, Karen, Jonathan and Susan. I am truly sorry for the Loss of Steve. I saw him regularly either at my neighbor's doing an excellent job of their yard. I would see him at Gary's every once in awhile and sit and talk to him. He was a very dedicated Christian and that was shown by the way he acted in life. I've known him for so many years and he has always been a very polite and courteous individual. You could tell easily that he had God in his life. I know Steve will be missed by many people and especially by his family. May God bring you peace, comfort you each day, and give you the strength at this time in your life and those times afterwards.

“ No words can express our shock and sadness in the loss of Stephen. We considered a dear and trusted friend, and the ultimate professional in his work.His attention to detail and quality in his landscaping and maintenance was like nothing we had seen; we’ve seen him stay until after dark many times to finish up to “get it just right”. He was also a kind and genial friend that we always enjoyed spending time with; being a follower of Christ was evident in his loving demeanor. He even loved our Springer Spaniel, Jeb Stuart, always treating him with kindness,as Jeb followed him around the yard during his work. We send our most sincere sympathy to Stephen’s family and his larger family of thankful clients that experienced true excellence and commitment to perfection in customer service. We will miss him greatly. Billy and Beverly Thurmond
