“ Steve was truly the nicest man we ever knew. The Kalkman family always enjoyed him as a teenage friend of our brother Jim. Our parents Bill and Rose went to visit him as if he was extended family in the South. Howard and I loved his visits to our place in Atlanta often with Jong to see our brother Jim from California. Lifelong family friend, Rest in Peace. Howard & Carol Evans

“ Banjong, I am so sorry about Steve's passing. He was a really nice person and I've known him for almost 30 years and he was so kind and caring to people. I remember all the bike rides we had 30 miles or more and how much he enjoyed them. I pray for you and the children and the family that God will be there for you for comfort, to help you find peace, and to supply the strength that you need during this time and in the future. We love you and we loved Steve.
