“ Stephen was many things to many people. He was the one person I could always count on to tell me when I was wrong, encourage me when I was right, and to let me know (in no uncertain terms) the difference in the two. I'll miss him as my life goes on and will think back to our times together with friends and family with warm memories.##imported-begin##Jim Flesch##imported-end##

“ I was so sorry to hear of Stephen's death. I don't get a paper and I didn't know until I read the obits in Dad's paper tonight. I remember the fondest of memories growing up with the Bower's kids. I regret that I haven't stayed in touch. To Flo, Betsy, Margie, Bert, Dana, and the kids, my heart goes out to you. I will pray for the sorrow to go away. Please remember you are loved and thought of much in this time of grief. Sorry I didn't know sooner or I would have come to see you all! I love you much!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!##imported-begin##Terry Jenkins##imported-end##

“ Tyler,
Meagan and I grieve for you and your family. Please know you are welcome at our house anytime and any hour of the day, if you need comfort, a shoulder or just someone to talk to. Tyler I have known you and your family since you were a little boy at Kids R Kids, I am so excited that you and Meagan are such good friends. I wish I could take away all your pain. I pray that God will be very real to you right now, that He would give you a sense of peace. I can't imagine what you and your family are going through. Please let us know if there is anything that we can do for you. We are here and willing to do what ever you need. You are constantly in our prayers and thoughts. May God bless you and keep you. “ Our deepest sympathy to Dana, Tyler, and Cody. Stephen was a great man, and a great father. Stephen was the kind of father other dads, like me, looked up to and tried to emulate. He so loved his family and was very involved with his sons activities. You could see that love in his smile, which never seemed to be missing. He was a beacon, a light house, shining and guiding those who knew him, lighting the path to character, dedication, and honor so that not only his son's learned but other boys and men he came in contact with learned. We will miss his smile, his deep voice and firm handshake. God Bless you and comfort you, The Price Family.##imported-begin##The Price Family (Don, Michelle, Trey, Matt)##imported-end##
