November 1, 1951 - June 11, 2017

Belvedere, SC—Memorial Services for Mr. Stewart “Gene” Fallaw, who entered into rest June 11, 2017, will be conducted Thursday afternoon at 2 o’clock from the Posey Funeral Chapel. Chaplain Dexter Lambert officiating.

Stewart Eugene “Gene” Fallaw was a loving, devoted husband, father and grandpa. He was a caring and generous person who was always concerned for other’s needs. He loved his Heavenly Father and his earthly family with all his heart.

Gene left high school early in his teens and began working with his father. Years later he went back to school and received his GED. In his twenties he began working in a welding shop, became a skilled machinist and began his career in welding. Later in the 80’s, he worked for (GIW) Georgia Iron Works for several years. After (GIW) Georgia Iron Works, he went on to work for Custom Machines for 14 years. After a long 40 year career of welding, it began to cause medical problems. He was unable to return to work and was disabled in 2008.

Throughout his life he enjoyed fishing and made many of his own fishing lures. Gene spent many enjoyable hours out on the water and fished in many tournaments for over 15 years. Gene won a world fishing record in 1984.

He had a love for music and played the guitar and sung with his family and friends. Gene enjoyed his music and found others also enjoyed his music, so he started his own band called "Southern Wind".

Gene also enjoyed playing golf and was a member of many golf clubs throughout South Carolina and Georgia. He taught his wife how to play so they could spend time doing things they enjoyed together.

In December of 2012, Gene had two devastating strokes that left him paralyzed, along with many other medical conditions. He was a strong and courageous man throughout his entire life. Gene continued to be strong spiritually and was saved again in 2013, when he was asked "did he believe in Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior", and he said "Yes".

He was preceded in death by his mother, Mary Davis; his father, Stewart Fallaw; a stepmother, Barbara Fallaw; a father-in-law, Oscar Ayers; a brother, Harmon Fallaw.

Survivors include his wife of six years, Becky Fallaw; a daughter, Kelli Daniel Rhodes (Michael Rhodes); four grandchildren, Morgan Daniel, Logan, Austin and Hailey Gardner; a brother, Ricky Fallaw; four sisters, Marilyn Fallaw, Barbara Braxton, Gwen Samples and Carolyn Brooks; his mother-in-law, Mary Roll; and many sisters and brothers-in-law; He also has several nieces and nephews.

“ I had the privilege of knowing Gene through my sister, Becky. From the first time I met him, I felt his genuine love for Becky. He was so in love with her!! He had a gentle nature an a big heart. He never bragged even though he had done amazing things in his life. Gene was content to spend his days caring for Micky and Boo Boo while waiting for Becky to return home. He was just very content with and appreciative with life. The world is a sadder place without him.

I have been looking back over Genes obituary several times and it's hard to believe that he's no longer here even at his age his life was cut short he and I were good friends in School . We hunted and fished together many times and shared many rounds of golf also I'm sorry that I lost touch with him his life moves on and it saddens me that I found out so late is ill fate . “ Gene was a great friend that I met in 1981 as a young kid starting my career at P&G. We both shared a love of fishing and one evening after work we took my Bomber bass boat to clarks hill. My first time on the lake. Fished south and he put me on a 7lber caught on a Red worm. Gene excelled at everything he did. He always said " all I need is my own boat and I'll be tough to beat!" He did just that, and more. My last time fishing With gene was on a visit back around 1990. We fished a nite tourney, caught 24lbs and came in second. Drank cold beer at 730 am after weighin.

I last saw gene shortly after his strokes while he was in Becky's care. I'm blessed to have shared those and other memories. Jeff
