North Augusta, SC – Funeral Services for Mrs. Sue Jack Bolton King, 85, who entered into rest August 16, 2024, will be conducted Tuesday morning, August 20th, at 10 o'clock in the Posey Funeral Chapel with Dr. Randy Cooper officiating. Interment will be private. The family will receive friends at the funeral home Monday evening, August 19th, from 6 until 8 o'clock.

Sue was born March 8, 1939, in Atlanta, GA, to the late Hugh Jack Bolton and Lillouise Branch Bolton. She made Augusta and North Augusta her home for most of her life. Sue was a 1957 graduate of North Augusta High School and a member of First Baptist Church of North Augusta, where she was a member of the Christ In Us Sunday School Class. She worked for Southern Bell for a number of years and retired as a paraprofessional from Richmond County School District. However, Sue served and supported her family as a homemaker for most of her life. She was a sports enthusiast and lived an active life, playing softball in her younger years, playing tennis in more recent years, and even bravely went skydiving at the age of 80. Sue was a devout Christian who loved God and adored her family, especially her grandchildren, who affectionately knew her as “Nannie”.

In addition to her parents, Sue was preceded in death by her husband, Charles E. King; three siblings, Ronald B. Bolton, J. Robert “Bob” Bolton, and Carolyn Bolton DeHart. Surviving family members left to cherish her memory include her son, J. Purvis King (Miriam); her daughter, Laurel Jones; a sister, Lynda Bolton Sprowls; 6 grandchildren: Kessler Cribbet (Cash), Mitchell Johnson (Madison), Matthew King, Adam King (Jennifer), Ella Kaye Ford, and Yonce Ford; 8 great-grandchildren, Avery Johnson, Blakely Johnson, Emma Johnson, Colbie Johnson, Carter Cribbet, Riley Sue Cribbet, Chandler King, and Noah King; several nieces and nephews; and her special companion, Ron McDaniel.

Honorary Pallbearers will be the members of the Christ In Us Sunday School Class.
