“ My condolences to family and friends. Ma. Nance was most definitely the nicest teacher at Sigonella! Because of her passion for art and her amazing ability to teach art - it stayed with me and being put to good use! You will forever be loved and in our hearts! Rest In Peace ❤️

“ I was really saddened by the news of her passing. Mrs. Nance was not only one of my favourite teachers from high school, but she was also an all-around kind and heartwarming person. I've always enjoyed Art as a subject, but it wasn't only the subject matter that had me returning to her classes every semester, but rather, it was the feeling of a safe haven that she created in her classroom. She truly inspired us to be better versions of ourselves as well as to cultivate our creative endeavors. May you rest in peace, Mrs. Nance. My sincerest condolences to family and friends.

“ I cannot believe this, I am in shock you are so young. You were my favorite teacher and I think about you often. You always believed in my art, inspired me to be the best that I can. You helped me strive to be better, pushed me in whatever way you could. Not only were you inspirational, but you were also kind and loved what you did. You had forever changed me and I cannot believe you are gone. You will be forever missed and I hope you rest in peace.

“ I'm in disbelief that you are really gone at such a young age. I would like to echo what my brother said, you are one of a kind teacher. You helped us when our mother passed. I don't remember the amount of times I spent time in your classroom, they are too many to count. From age 10 to age 16 I found safe haven in your amazing art room, I requested it to be my home room for 8th (free period) when I finally became a high schooler. You have forever touch my soul for the better and I don't think I would be the person I am today without your instruction and kindness. My condolences to the family. My you rest easy now but you will be forever missed!

“ I will forever have Ms. Nance in my heart. She was my Art teacher since the 9th grade. We stayed in touch since then. Me wanting to get away from Social Media am just now finding out that the BEST Art teacher and just over all amazing human being just passed away. I am in shock and at a loss for words. To Ms. Nance's family, I want you to know that Susan was there to comfort me when my mother died when I was 16 years old. She taught me to express my feelings and emotions through art therapy. With her and Ms. Evans is the only reason I am alive and the man I am today. May God bless her as I will miss her terribly. If it is not to much to ask - I live in DC and would really appreciate to take her flowers to her grave. please send resting info to my email address; andreagcassar@gmail.com

Love you Ms. Nance. - Andrea Cassar

“ I worked with Susan when I was at Sigonella. Such a wonderful person and a great art teacher would be an understatement. We did some team teaching together in the old school, art and music combined. She was a great joy. The world will miss her.

“ We shared teaching art at Sigonella--Nancy at the HS and me at the ES. We shared Art Show space in the library and some of Pina Longo's adult study trips :-)

A gentle, creative, and generous spirit, she will be missed. Fortunately, she still talks to me through her sun-filled Aci Trezza boat paintings hanging in my house.
