“ Little brother you fought a good fight and deserve your rest. Oma met you there to take you home. I saw you last night. You didn't remember but I did(I was 11years older than you) and tried to tell you often how she cried when she had to leave us and go back to Germany. You were two when they came and four when they left. The whole two years they were here, you were glued to her side and she to yours. I still remember how she cried and lamented that you were so young, you wouldn't be able to remember her. You were so forlorn after they left, I swore I would remind you as often as I could and I did. Now you are in her arms again & both of you are happy. Sleep sweetly, little one. I love you!
