“ Tom was a wonderful husband and father. It was a blessing to have known him. The Huggins family has always felt a kindred spirit to the Thirkells. Our heartfelt prayers go out to the family and my special Godmother Annie. It is always a pleasure to gather with the Thirkell family...I will cherish my memories of Tom. God Bless!

“ Annie, and family,
Tom was a very special "gentle" man. I always enjoyed being around him, because he could always have a good story and bring a smile to anyone's face. Remember when all of a sudden this guy had taken "our" Annie off to some Greek Island and none of us new who this mystery man was. When we finally met everyone knew why. A kind and generous soul Tom! He took so much interest in Dad and his war stories, it really meant a lot to me for someone to relate to Daddy. Your family will always hold a special place in my heart. Tom is now breathing comfortably, and is making all of the families feel good with his big smile, and sense of humor. God has welcomed him with open arms, and said, "well done my son". To all be comforted by your faith, and knowledge that you had such a wonderful husband, father, and "Poppy".
God loves you all and so do I!
