“ Dear Lewis family,
I am very sorry to hear of the recent death of Greg. I send the family my heartfelt condolences.
When the enemy death strikes, our grief can be great indeed. We feel so helpless because there is nothing that we can do to alter the situation.(1 Corinthians 15:26)(Psalms 49:7).
There is someone who can do something about the situation. That someone is Almighty God. In his word the Bible, he promises us that those who are in his memory will be resurrected.(John 5:28-29)(Acts 24:15). Isn't this comforting to know? One day soon we will have the prospect of being reunited with our loved ones and close friends who have fallen asleep in death.
When Jesus Christ was here on the earth, he showed that he has the power to bring the dead back to life. On one occasion, he resurrected his friend Lazarus.(John 11:11-44). On another occasion, he resurrected a 12 year old girl.(Luke 8:49-56).
So during this very difficult time in your life, go to God in prayer and pour out your heart to him, and he will give you what you need to cope with whatever trial comes your way.
I hope that these few words of encouragement will give the family comfort as well as hope.
In your spare time please read: Revelation 21:3-4, Isaiah 25:8, Isaiah 26:19

Sincerely,
Sandra##imported-begin##Sandra##imported-end##

“ So many sweet memories of Greg starting in First Grade until graduation from LBC in 1969. I talked to Greg last Fall. He told me how much he loved his family and how proud of each one he was. Judy was the love of his life, and he was so grateful for her. Many prayers for his family. Greg will be missed by so many people, especially the LBC Class of 69, but our greatest Reunion is to come, and we will see Greg again.##imported-begin##Kathy Duncan New##imported-end##

“ Judy, Clay and Tonya;
My heart truly broke along with yours Monday morning. Greg was a wonderful neighbor and a very dear friend. He and I shared so many wonderful talks over the fence and I will truly miss them. He was always there anytime I needed a hand or just some good fishing advice. I also know Greg is a strong Christian and is now at home with our LORD and waiting for us to join him. This is a great loss to society but a wonderful addition to our Heavenly Home. I love each of you and am always here for you.##imported-begin##Mike Mock##imported-end##
