

Travelus "Travis" Alexander Floyd

August 9, 1969 - August 8, 2020

Aiken, SC—Mr. Travelus “Travis” Alexander Floyd, age 50, entered into rest August 8, 2020. A small, private service will be held at a later date.

Travis was life-long resident of Aiken and employed by the SCDOT as a Trade Specialist 3-Lead Man. He was a hay farmer who was known to be a jack of all trades. Travis could build or fix anything and was often called upon by many to do just that. He loved fishing, camping, collecting guns and most especially taking trips and making memories. Travis was most importantly a family man; a dedicated husband, father and grandfather who was affectionately called “Paw Paw.”

Survivors include his wife Kimberly Floyd; five children, Casey Hallman, Corey Hutto, Rebecca Hutto, Michael Kooy and Shelby Goodwin; three grandchildren, Ryder Kooy, Adrian Galo and Kamryn Blichington; a grandfather, Finley Lowe; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Floyd; five siblings; his closest friend whom he considered a “brother,” Christopher Padgett.

Posey Funeral Directors of North Augusta is in charge of arrangements (803.27.1181). Visit the registry at www.POSEYCARES.com

“ Travis helped me greatly when I first moved to Aiken, and joined his crew at SCDOT. One of the nicest people I've encountered, truly showing what Southern Hospitality meant. He will be sorely missed.

“ Travis is a kind loving strong man who loved his family and his friends! I am his friend! I have known Travis for 25 years,, that's a long time to get to know someone. I know that family meant everything to him and he would do anything for all he called family! Travis would go without for his family! I loved him as my friend and for being such a good man! I will miss him deeply! God Bless you all and keep you with him! Love to you, Travis's family, Gaye
