

Trevor Duane Perry

September 24, 1999 - October 31, 2023

Trevor Duane Perry was born to Don and Alisa Perry on September 24, 1999, and entered into rest on October 31, 2023. Funeral Services will be conducted Saturday afternoon, November 18th, at 12 noon, from Second Providence Baptist Church. Interment will follow in Jacksonville Missionary Baptist Church Cemetery. The family will receive friends at the funeral home Friday evening, November 17th, from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Trevor was a life-long resident of Aiken, SC and a 2018 graduate of South Aiken High School. Trevor was a very loving and caring person. He was a friend to anyone he met. He enjoyed singing, playing his trumpet, streaming, and spending time with his family. These loves were not just a hobby, but they were a part of his daily life. Trevor enjoyed spending time with his brothers, sister, grandmother, sister-in-law, nieces, and nephew. Trevor had a heart of gold that was unmatched. His faith and belief in God is what shown bright. He was baptized at Jacksonville Baptist Church at the age of seven. He knew then the importance of faith, family, and friends which carried him through his entire life. Trevor was never one to just sit back and do nothing. At Jacksonville he participated and volunteered in anyway he could. He was a member of the Jacksonville Youth Department, Ensemble, and Praise Team. He played his trumpet for special services and even played the piano on a couple of occasions. He also sang tenor in the E.T.Q. Voices of Praise, a group founded by the descendants of Ella Thomas Quiller. His love of music did not stop at the church. Trevor enjoyed playing the trumpet from Kennedy Middle School to South Aiken High School. He even played briefly for the Clemson University Marching Band.

Trevor touched so many during his 24 years of life. After he graduated from high school, he started a job working at Hardee's in Aiken. Every day when he arrived back home from work, he would tell us how everything went that day. He loved all his co-workers and his management team. As with many young people his age, Trevor developed an online Streaming following, where he met a host of new people who had a similar love for gaming and technology. Trevor had not only gained a following but had made friends around the world. In his streaming he was also a MMC Voice-Over Actor. Trevor will be greatly missed by many, and our hopes are that his friends and family will keep his loving memory in their hearts and show others the same level of kindness.

Trevor was preceded in death by his sister, Jasmine Perry, grandmother, Emma Perry, grandfathers Allen D. Quiller and Don Perry, Sr.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his loving and supportive parents Don and Alisa Perry, Aiken, SC, two brothers Dwight (Jessica) Bush, Grovetown, Ga, Cullen Perry, Aiken, SC, nephew, Isaiah Chandler, Grovetown, Ga, two nieces, Alenna and Alyvia Bush, Grovetown, Ga., grandmother, Doris Quiller, Bath, SC, his aunts and uncles: Donna Perry, North Augusta, SC, Andre Quiller, Bath, SC, Brandee (Raythell) Talford, Lancaster SC, Anna Shamica (Kurth)Connell, Seattle, WA, god-parents: Lori Brown, Graniteville, SC Ron Mathews, North Augusta, SC, Wayne and Gwen Quattlebaum, Wagener, SC and a host of great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins, and friends.

Mark and I are so very sorry , our hearts ache for you as you endure this journey-again. Keep God close as He is the only way thru such pain.

I remember when we had to let our daughter Casey go to her heavenly home. I told our pastor we lost Casey and he responded we did not lose Casey - she is with Jesus.

Offering prayers for you all

May Gods presence be felt and his promises remain with you through your days ahead

“ Joyce and I are so sorry for your loss. We remember some of the fun times we had together, especially at a basketball game at Josey H.S. Trevor's antics are stuck in my memory, we laughed at how persuasive he tried to be. We're glad we got to spend time with him and the rest of the family. Prayers and faith go out to you.

Don and Alisa, during this difficult time, I offer prayers, support, and love to you. Trevor was such a wonderful young man with a heart of gold and a beautiful smile. He was so polite and respectful. The memories that I had with Trevor will remain with me always. God has called His Angel to his eternal home, but Trevor's presence will remain forever in our lives. May God's grace, love, mercy, and compassion comfort you now and forever.

Sending prayers and love from Maryland. Trevor has always been so caring and supportive of anyone. He also protected anyone he cares about. His heart was always full of love and kindness. He always had been so considerate. What would do I do if I never even met him? I wish that the whole world could meet him and get to know him. Nobody is more kind than Trevor. He will always be remembered until the day I join him up in the clouds. He had the most sweetest smile and an amazing voice. He always has been a really amazing online friend from 2016 all the way to the day he's gone. I wish I had the chance to thank him for all he had done for not just me, but for all of us.
