“ Janet and family, I am thinking with fondness of my friend Janet and the time I have spent with her Mother and sometimes her Dad. They have been a blessing to me. I know that Mr. Street left a powerful legacy.

“ Mr. Street brought our family such happiness and joy when I was a child! He taught me around the age of 11 how to draw a house, ill never forget that nod of approval. My thoughts and love to the family!

“ My granddaddy, Mr Street. What a wonderful blessing it was to share my life with him. He lived his life through Christ and I know he has found his new home in heaven. Love you

I knew Mr. Street to set a fine example of how a Christian life should be lived. My brother and I affectionately referred to him as Mr T. He was a good friend to my family. We spent many happy hours with him before we all moved away to find new jobs. I was impressed when in his seventies he replaced the roof on his home pretty much by himself.! Wallace Mcleroy
