“ Vernon was a clear example of "The Golden Rule". He always greeted his friends, by name and with a handshake or hug. He behaved in a positive manner, minimized any health conditions, and kept his independence. Vernon never complained and never said a negative thing about anyone. He will be sadly missed by his family and friends and, especially, his girlfriend, Jan. Vernon taught us to live by "The Golden Rule". Let us all cherish him by making this rule our motto.
