“ I'm Vivian Humphries Bishop. My family and Victor's family both lived on West Avenue when we were young. I finished North Augusta High in 1950. I have been in contact with Victor several times since he bought the house here.. As usual, we fail tyo keep up with our friends as we should. I'm so sorry to learn of Victor's death. He became a very important person in my estimation. My husband was a Navy man who was so patriotic. My sincere condolences to Victor's family.. I lost my husband of 69 years June 15, 2020. It's tough losing our loved ones. My prayers are with the family as you adjust to life without your loved one.

“ Victor, I'll never forget the first time we met at the Department meeting. Thank you for your guidance in getting involved, for keeping our line honest, and for being there to keep everyone on the same page. We'll miss you tons, but I know you're just on a long march far away. See you there some day.
