“ The first time I met this Angel was when I was 16 at OGA. She immediately became my second mom. Mama Ginny helped raise me and through her strength, unconditional love, endless giving, personal sacrifices, and even the hard lessons we shared made me the woman, friend, mother, sister, companion, and daughter I am today at 40. She was one of a kind with a heart of gold. I am so thankful she was a part of my life and my 2 son's life. She loved my boys as if they were her own grandkids and I love her girls as if they were my sisters. Even though she is no longer with us, she is still an Angel with wings now to watch over us from above at all times. We will never forget you or the impact you had on our family. We will always love you. There will never be another Mama "G"!

“ Some people leave lasting memories. Ginny was with me for all three of my boys deliveries. She and Papa Doc were such a great team for so many years. Two of the most Christian, loving, giving people I had the pleasure of knowing. My heartfelt sympathies to her family. My prayers and thoughts are with you in the days, weeks and months ahead.
