

W. H. "Dan" Dantzler Jr.

July 23, 1934 - May 3, 2022

North Augusta, SC—Graveside Services for Mr. W. H. "Dan" Dantzler, Jr, 87, who entered into rest May 3, 2022, will be conducted Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Westover Memorial Park with Veteran's Honors. Chaplain Robert Williams officiating. The family will receive friends at the funeral home Friday afternoon from 12:30 until 1:30.

Mr. Dantzler was a native of Sumter, SC, having made North Augusta his home for the past 61 years. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of North Augusta, retired from Claussen Paving Company and was a United States Navy Veteran. Mr. Dantzler loved different types of music and had the gift of playing the piano and guitar by ear. He took pride in working in his yard and in his spare time, he enjoyed fishing and target shooting. Mr. Dantzler will always be remembered as being a jack of all trades, handyman and was an avid Gamecock fan. He was preceded in death by his parents, W. H. Dantzler, Sr., and Bessie Baker Dantzler.

Survivors include his wife of 67 years, Mary Agnes Dantzler, a son, Wayne Dantzler, Greenville, SC; a daughter and son-in-law, Nicole and Jerry Channell, North Augusta, SC; four grandchildren, Brad (Tabitha) Dantzler, Cam (Abigail) Channell, Candace Channell and Lauren Jimenez; three great-grandchildren, Hazel Dantzler, Colton Channell and Greenlie Moody; two brothers, Allen "Bud" Dantzler, Sumter, SC and Alfred Dantzler, Columbia, SC; a nephew, Al (Lek) Dantzler, Columbus, OH; a niece, Lisa (Scott) Gamble, Sumter, SC; three great-nieces.

Pallbearers will be Cam Chanell, Brad Dantzler, Eric Meeks and Ollie McGee.

Memorials may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project at <https://support.woundedwarriorproject.org>.

“ What a beautiful honor and tribute to a wonderful man. He had such a vast array of interests and the desire to chase his dreams and make them into a reality.
His family was always his greatest achievement.
We have been honored to have known him and be a part of his family,
His wit, fabulous sense of humor, love of all things and people displayed his wonderful character.
Rest In Peace Dan.
Love, Tiger and Deiatra
