“ I grew up living next door to The Hamiltons. Now the three neighbors on Carolina Avenue are all gone...The Warlicks, The Iveys, and The Hamiltons. He was the last of the old timers of Carolina Avenue. He and Mrs.Hamilton were the best neighbors. Mr. Hamilton was so good to my mother after my father passed away. He was a good man and will definitely be missed. I'm sure the three Carolina Avenue neighbors are having a great reunion in heaven! Jean and Judy....you all are in our prayers!

“ To me, he was simply "Pop" and he always had a joke, a mischievous smile and a hug - even as recently as a couple of weeks ago. His greatest gift, however, was his abundant heart. There aren't too many couples that I look at and think "Wow, I want what they have," but he and Nana were one of the best examples of a true love story I have ever witnessed. I love you and will miss you, Pop.

“ I will always remember his kindness to me regardless of circumstances from the first time I met him more than forty years ago till the last time I saw him. A fine man who represented the Greatest Generation well. Anyone who lived as long as he did and was thought of so highly all of knew him had a wonderful live. He was a terrific husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather and friend.
