

Wanda H. Holod

February 24, 1952 - April 17, 2017

Augusta, GA—Memorial Services for Mrs. Wanda H. Holod, 65, who entered into rest April 17, 2017, will be conducted Friday evening at 6 o'clock in the Posey Funeral Chapel. Chaplain Hank Flowers officiating.

Mrs. Holod was a native of Bishopville, South Carolina, having made Augusta her home for the past 37 years. She worked as Lead ER Radiological Technologist at University Hospital for 37 years and was the 5 time recipient of the Clinical Instructor Award for those whom she taught. Mrs. Holod loved her family dearly and was a true humanitarian.

Survivors include her husband of 25 years, Mike Holod; a son and daughter-in-law, Nathan and Kayla Holod, Shillington, PA ; two daughters, Brandi Carr and Destiny Holod, both of Augusta, GA ; her parents, Haywood "Tom" and Grace Hudson, Cheraw, SC; a brother, Larry Hudson, Charleston, SC; three grandchildren, Henry Walker Holod, Benjamin Carr and Ray Carr; a nephew, Andrew Hudson.

Honorary Pallbearers will be members of the University Hospital Radiology Department.

The family will receive friends at the funeral home Friday evening from 4 until the hour of service.

In Lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Stephen W. Brown School of Radiology Endowment Fund, c/o University Healthcare Foundation, 2100 Central Ave Suite D1, Augusta, GA 30904.

“ I have so many memories of Wanda before she moved to Augusta. We went to high school together and had much fun when we were in the band. Many memories in xray school and after we all ended up at Providence Hospital until she moved. This breaks my heart,, but I know Wanda fought the good fight. My thoughts and prayers are with her family..
