“ *My brother Wayne
You taught me so much growing up... basketball, riding a bike, how to whistle, eat at the blue top. You always looked out for me to see if I needed anything and you always took care of me like a big brother does. I will never forget you.*

*I love you

“ So sorry to hear of the passing of Wayne. My first memories of Wayne is him pushing me through the window of the gym at LMHS on Sat mornings to open the locked door so that he, Glenn Gaskin, and myself could play basketball . I think I still have some of the scars from the picks I set for him to shot over Glenn. He was a fine man, and I am glad I got to see him in NASC a few months ago. Joann and I give our Sympathy to the family, as Peggy Lynn and I go back to the 1959 days.
