“ Met Bill through my friend Dianne Dalenberg. Bill was such a fine fellow. His humor and quick wittiness I'll remember. Loved his music and his family. Bill will be deeply missed by many. There wont be another like him. Edna my prayers are with you. I have been sharing some of you painful loss today. Last I saw of you 2 was at St Pauls Church Christmas service. Bill is in good hands with his Heavenly Father.

“ Bill was as down to earth as anyone I know. I remember how happy he was when he met Edna and we were all happy for him. It's like they were meant for each other. They always had the cutest costumes at our Halloween party! Bill was a good man and will be missed. My deepest condolences to Edna and the family. Gone but never forgotten.

“ Bill embodied so much of what has made this country great: long-time railroad man, consummate musician and band leader with an impeccable ear for tones and tempos, loving husband and father and friend. He loved the open road on his "hog" (bike), until some careless driver cut him down and severely injured him. Always positive, full of hope, sprinkled with reason, discernment and common sense, we had some great discussions. I just wish there had been more.

"Go rest high on that mountain" Bill,

"Your work on earth is done,

Go to heaven a-shoutin'

Love for the Father and the Son."

“ Although I didn't know Bill for very long (only about 4 years) I thoroughly enjoyed every conversation I had with him at every family gathering. He was very lighthearted and had many jokes. I especially looked forward to Halloween every year to see what him and his wife would come dressed up as. They were always the best. I am truly going to miss him but I know he is in heaven looking down on his family. Possibly performing in a rock concert as we speak.
