“ In the words of a Christian recording artist by the name of Wayne Watson, who was popular from the late 60s until the 80s and beyond:

Home free eventually ...

At the ultimate healing we will be home free.

Home free ...

Oh I've got a feeling at the ultimate healing

We will be home ... free!

Uncle Bill, you are now home in Heaven and truly free of the burdens of this earthly life.

The Minks, the Beaustons, the Fletchers, and the Tennessee Minks will be there for you. As painful as the loss of our dear uncle is to all who knew and loved him, what a comfort-- even a thrill--to know that he is truly "home free."

We love all of you dearly ...

“ JoAnn, Joel, Mike, Russell, and families-

It's been many years since I've seen you, but so many memories of you all seem as clear as if no time has passed. I remember specific moments growing up. Warm, wonderful times with you all. Smiles. I did get an opportunity to see JoAnn a couple of years ago. Time which I cherish. I can't be there now for health reasons, but I do hope to be able to visit soon. My thoughts and prayers are with each of you now. I do love and miss you all, and I am so very sorry for your loss.

Brian ...

Melanie Mink Beauston here. I remember our junior high and high school days together, primarily the Thanksgiving weekend trip to either Table Rock or Oconee State Park where we kids played either Scrabble or card games non-stop. Those were the days ... with not a worry in the world! So glad to have stumbled onto your posting here.

Nice to see your comment, Melanie. Those couple of trips to the Mountains were so very special to me as a boy. My heart and prayers are with you and yours. God be with you all!
