“ I just read an article about a POW conference and learned of Mr. Herndon's passing. I am so very sorry and give my deepest sympathy to his family. In early March, Mr. Herndon spoke to my World History class at Aiken High about his role in WWII. We instantly were captivated by his heroic stories and his amazing smile. I feel so fortunate to have been able to hear his stories, and I know my students feel the same. He was truly a member of the Greatest Generation. It was an honor to be in his presence.##imported-begin##Sally Tice##imported-end##

“ Dear Diane,
I drove by your old house today on Browning Road and remembered such wonderful feelings that were shared there because of the amazing love that your Mom and Dad shared with each other and their family. I prayed and thanked God for the good friend they blessed me with - you! I also smiled because I knew they were together in Heaven! What a blessing to have parents that when you think of them you smile! You will miss them, but not forever! Remember the promise of Easter!

“ Dear Herndon Family,

I am sending sympathy on behalf of my mom, Jean Peart ,and myself. Sarah Scott is my deceased father's niece. The Peart family goes way back with the Herndons and Scotts as my dad, Harry Peart, lived in Auburn also. Today, my mom told me that my dad had been "in love" with one of your dad's sisters! Please know we are keeping your family in our thoughts and prayers.

“ *Dear Marti and family, we are so saddened by the passing of your wonderful father. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. Your dad was just one of the nicest people I have ever known. “ Marti, I went on to view the write up on your dad and thought I would put a note here and let you know again how sorry I am about the loss of your father. I will remember him as a great, friendly, caring, and family man, who along with your wonderful mother, spent a good number of years watching over you and me. I always felt a part of the family and hate that these things have to happen. The good thing is that he and your mom gave you a strong foundation of family, and now you can continue that important tradition with Taylor and Kimberly. I love you more than you know and can only say that time will heal this difficult time. You know I am here if you need me.##imported-begin##John Younginer##imported-end##

“ Diane spoke so fondly of her dad in the years we worked together at Sycamore School in Indianapolis. I remember some things about his business life, like the many pairs of black wingtip shoes he had for the office. I see so much of Diane in Mr. Herndon's smile. What a fine man he was.##imported-begin##Nyle Kardatzke##imported-end##

“ *Diane, Bob, Tony, Ben, Matt, and family,
I had the pleasure of meeting your dad and grandpa a few times when he visited Sycamore School. It was clear to me where your family got their warm good humor, intelligence, and easy way with people. It is a testament to your dad, Diane, that you all love him so much, and that you have such a loving and close family. You were blessed with great parents, Diane, and they will be with you forever.##imported-begin##Susan Karpicke##imported-end##*

“ My deepest and heartfelt sympathy to each member of your dear family as you grieve the loss of your beloved. Your Father held a special place of affection in my heart, as he did in the hearts of so many at Fairview and throughout the North Augusta community. He was greatly respected and admired, as was your precious Mother. I pray the Lord surround each of you with an extra measure of His strength, mercy and compassion and grant you His grace sufficient for each minute of each hour of each day. (John 14:3)

“ I am so sorry of the loss of this great and wonderful man. I hope that the family will soon realize that it must have been his time to go and he will be in a better place now even though you can still be sad. I have a friend that this was her grandfather. Her name is Kimberly Flippo. I get to say in years from now that I got to know Mr. Herdon. He was a kind and loving man to all. He was very involved in his grandchildrens schools he also shared his knowledge with others as well. We will miss you and rest in reace and to all of the family you are alli n our prayers.
