“ I wanted to say that I will miss my granddaddy and that he held a special place in my heart. I grew up in California and was not able to visit him alot but he was never more then a phone call away. My granddaddy gave me something that means more to me then anything that he could have ever given me. That is his unconditional love he had. I took my daughter to visit him in October of 2006 when my Nanny (grandmother) was ill this was her first time meeting him (she's 9yrs old) she was terrifed (she is Bi-racial 1/2 black) when my granddaddy layed eyes on her his smile lit up his face and he gave her a hug and said there is no reason to be scared I aint gonna let noone hurt you. Each time we called he asked how Breanna was and she would get on the phone and the tone in his voice would change to excitment. I have to say he was a very caring,hardworking man that everyone respected. My daughter leaned alot from him that 7 days we spent in S.C. last fall. he taught her manners and told her that you could go anywhere in life as long as you work hard. He told her that no sir yes maam should be used wherever you live not just in the south it is a sign of respect. I know he was loved by many and held a special place in all our hearts. He has been called home to help the lord prepare for all those that follow and I hope he looks down on us and is proud of the life we each choose to live. Until we meet again I miss you and love you !###imported-begin##Tiffany & Breanna (Red's Grandaughter & Great grandaughter))###imported-end##

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. May you find comfort in your memories of Red and a peace knowing He is with the Lord. I wish we could have made it to Inman's funeral several weeks ago and to see you all again - but we had made plans out of town that weekend - God bless you all.##imported-begin##Kenneth & Estelle Feagin (John & Frances Hancock Feagin's daughter) Ellis##imported-end##
