“ Patricia and Jimmy,
David and I were so shocked to hear of Zachs passing. I remember all the fun times all of our children had over at Granny Julians house on Thanksgiving and other gatherings. He was always so sweet and funny! We all loved him so much and he will be missed with all our hearts. Your family will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to us all . It is especially an enemy when it strike someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing."(1Corinthians 15:26) Then the words of John 5:28 will be fulfilled that reads: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." I hope this message will comfort you in your time of sadness.

*Dear Jimmy, Patricia and Jessica,
Your family is in our hearts and prayers. We share in your grief. Your pastor did such a wonderful service this morning in memory of Zachary's life . I know that it gives you great comfort that Zachary is now with his heavenly Father. I know that God will use this tragedy for you to minister to others. We are praying that God wraps His loving arms around all of you and provides you with comfort and peace that only He can give.
In Christ,
Susan & Pat Toohey*

*Dear Susan and Pat,
Thank you so much for your sweet message. We appreciate your prayers and your loving concern. The lovely handkerchief you gave Jessica and me was one of the sweetest & most touching gestures ever. God has truly been with us in this dark valley and will not leave us. He has also given us many friends to walk with us. Thank you & God bless. We will continue to pray for you too.*

“ Dear Mullan Family,
I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in your loving memories, and in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34:18) He has promised to soon "swallow up death forever...and wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) With deepest sympathy,
