“ Zane,

I am deeply saddened to hear about your father's passing. I'll always remember the times that he would come in to the N.A. office and banter with Frank. He was quite a character! Please accept my sincere condolences.

“ Christopher Family, I agree with all the loving remarks below and Zane Jr., I wholeheartedly agree with your response to Debbie. I remember playing chess with and I loved Zane Sr. almost like a 2nd or 3rd father. Best words of wisdom he ever gave me was when I said to him once that "Christmas was not as fun as an older person". He said, "U idiot, Christmas is not about U, it's about making some kids happy". Some words are so true that they are just meant to stay with us forever. I won't forget him and y'all won't either. Love Y'all and Sending Our Prayers also, Rick Swanson & Family

“ Mike has shared many stories about times spent with Zane, Sr. I smile knowing that Zane Sr. relished in keeping Mike "in check" by cutting him little slack, a feat in itself. Zane was loved and respected and will be missed but not forgotten.
Our love and prayer,

“ Zane, please accept my condolences for you and your family at this time of loss. I remember you telling me back in August that your father was not doing well. It is not easy to lose a parent. I know he was proud of you and all you have accomplished. May you take comfort in the days ahead knowing that your Dad is in heaven and resting in peace. You now have an extraordinary angel from above watching over you. Take care.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.
